THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

The city of Boston was first settled in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers from England. They established a colony on the eastern shore of Massachusetts Bay, which was named Boston in honor of the city of Boston in England. The city grew rapidly and became one of the most important centers of commerce and industry in the New England region. In 1780, during the American Revolutionary War, the British evacuated Boston and moved their army to New York City. The city was then occupied by the Continental Army from 1780 to 1783. After the war, Boston continued to grow and became a major center of education and culture. In 1830, the city was incorporated as a city and became the first city in the United States to have a city council. In 1822, the city was incorporated as a city and became the first city in the United States to have a city council.
