Well No.: G-39
MAY 14, 1975
FIELD D

The document is a well schedule form filled out with various details about a well, including its location, use, data availability, and well description. The form contains fields for depth, casing, method of drilling, water level, yield, and other geological and hydrological data relevant to the water resource. The form is part of a series used by the U.S. Geological Survey for recording information about groundwater wells.
