This was the only deep well in the area from which a sample was taken. The sample was taken after 30 days.